CELEBRATING THE JAZZ MASTERPIECE

“TAKE FIVE” – DAVE BRUBECK TRIBUTE

Christina Von Bülow (alto sax / DK), Søren Kristiansen (piano / DK/ Aug 5 & 7), Olivier Antunes (piano / DK / Aug 6), Frands Riffbjerg (drums / DK)

An all-star group of highly celebrated Danish musicians comes to the Montmartre for a celebration of a milestone album in jazz history, “Time Out”, the 1959 album by American pianist/composer Dave Brubeck and his quartet with the cool sounding alto saxophonist Paul Desmond, drummer Joe Morello and bassist Eugene Wright. Although the album was intended as an experiment (using time signatures unusual for jazz, such as waltz, 9/8 and most famously 5/4) and received negative reviews by critics upon its release, it became one of the best-known and biggest-selling jazz albums of all times, featuring now classics such as “Take Five”, “Blue Rondo a la Turk” and “Strange Meadow Lark”.

AMERICAN SAXOPHONIST MEETS SWEDISH PIANIST

ERIC ALEXANDER/ JAN LUNDGREN QUARTET

Eric Alexander (tenor sax / USA), Jan Lundgren (piano / SE), Jesper Lundgaard (bass / DK), Kristian Leth (drums / DK)

While one is known for his temperamental and fast phrases, the other is renowned for his melodic and lyrical playing. The encounter between New York based Eric Alexander (tenor sax) and Swedish Jan Lundgren brings memories back to when Stan Getz and Jan Johansson used to play at Montmartre in the old days. 50 years later we continue to present to you some of the finest jazz musicians on each side of the Atlantic. This time around the American-Scandinavian summit meeting is supported by the swinging yet sensitive drummer Kristian Leth as well as the much acclaimed virtuoso bass player Jesper Lundgaard.

THE GRAMMY® AWARD WINNING TRUMPETER

BRIAN LYNCH

Brian Lynch (trumpet / US), Henrik Gunde (piano / DK / Aug 19, 20, 21), Jacob Christoffersen (piano / DK / Aug 22), Jesper Bodilsen (bass / DK), Niclas Bardeleben (drums / DK)

It is with tremendous pleasure that we welcome the incredible Grammy® Award winning American trumpeter Brian Lynch for his first engagement here at the Montmartre. Years ago he paid his dues as a sideman in the bands of jazz history icons such as Art Blakey, Horace Silver and Phil Woods. Later he played with latin jazz star Eddie Palmieri and Buena Vista Social Club alumnus Barbarito Torres and even worked with pop luminaries such as Prince, Maxwell and Sheila E. Today he concentrates mostly on his own projects and we can look forward to three exciting nights with him in the company of an all-star cast of Danish musicians and Montmartre regulars.

DUO NIGHTS & DANISH SONGS

THOMAS CLAUSEN / HANS ULRIK DUO OLE KOCK HANSEN / JESPER LUNDGAARD DUO

1st set: Thomas Clausen (piano / DK), Hans Ulrik (tenor sax / DK)
2nd set: Ole Kock Hansen (piano / DK), Jesper Lundgaard (bass / DK)

Welcome to two very special evenings here at the Montmartre featuring two Danish all-star duos each night, performing their jazz renditions of traditional Danish folk songs. Over the years, many Danish jazz musicians have experimented with incorporating the lyricism of the traditional Danish folk song tradition into the American jazz heritage. Some of the most successful attempts have come from the master musicians that you will hear tonight, including two of Denmark most legendary and respected pianists, Thomas Clausen and Ole Kock Hansen, the award-winning tenor saxophonist Hans Ulrik and the great bass virtuoso Jesper Lundgaard.

CELEBRATING MONICA ZETTERLUND AND BILL EVANS

«WALTZ FOR DEBBY» SINNE EEG / LARS JANSSON

Sinne Eeg vocals (DK), Lars Jansson, piano (SE), Jesper Bodilsen, bass (DK), Morten Lund, drums (DK)

In 1964 Swedish singer Monica Zetterlund (1937-2005) and American pianist Bill Evans (1929-1980) recorded their masterpiece album «Waltz For Debby». Zetterlund must have sparked an unusual inspiration in Evans, as he hardly ever agreed to collaborate with other artists (only very few and very exceptional projects, such as the Miles Davis album «Kind of Blue», have been blessed with the piano giant's participation). Zetterlund was a pioneer. She has described the critically acclaimed album «Waltz For Debby» with Bill Evans as her best album ever and the one she was the most proud of. Jazzhus Montmartre is thrilled to present an three day celebration of our dearly beloved regional jazz vocal role model and her ultimate album - featuring some of today's most acclaimed and exciting Scandinavian jazz artists.

JAZZ CLUB 20.00 - 24.00

After 34 years the legendary Jazzhus Montmartre is back alive in the original venue at Store Regnegade 19A in Copenhagen. The iconic jazz club was re-opened in May 2010 by the two friends, jazz pianist Niels Lan Doky (returning to Denmark after 29 years in New York and Paris) and Rune Bech (the former Politiken Foreign Correspondent, TV 2 New Media executive and entrepreneur that created the internet success NetDoctor). Niels and Rune have founded the new Montmartre as a non-profit initiative with help from generous donors and volunteers. Their dream is to create the best jazz club on Earth with world class jazz from the best artists. Come and join the party.
